Starting your Match

To start your match, click on your opponent's name in the list of players in the room. The match settings for type of match, length and clock are all pre-set. Both you and your opponent must be in the same room to be able to play your match.

Important: If you lose your match and need to play your next match in the Consolation, you will need to change rooms to enter the corresponding Consolation room. Similarly, if your next match is in the Get Stuffed tournament, you will need to enter the TT Get Stuffed room.
